

A sleeping dinosaur

Een Engels versje

Heb je wel eens een dino horen snurken? In dit versje hoor je hoe dat klinkt!

In a big muddy puddle

On a big muddy track,

I saw some giant footprints

Leading up the hill and back.

The footprints had no toes,

They were big and deep and round,

I wondered who had left them

On the muddy, muddy ground.

I waited until night time,

I was listening for a roar,

But from a cave behind a tree

I heard a giant SNORE.

I tip toed to the cave

And peeped into the black,

And there was a dinosaur

Sleeping on her back

And on her dino tummy

Cuddled in her dino paws,
Were little dino babies
With tiny dino claws.
I tip toed out into the night,
The moon was smiling down,
I think he knew the secret,
He knew what I had found.
I put my finger on my lips
And quietly walked back
To the big muddy puddle
On the big muddy track.
So when you cannot sleep
Listen for a distant snore,
You never know, you just might hear
A sleeping dinosaur.
