

Josh loves football

Een Engels clipje over voetbal 1

Football is Josh' favourite thing. He loves to play and when he scores a goal, it's the best feeling in the world.

I practice football every Sunday.

The studs on my shoes make me run faster.

I did have green and black ones but then they didn't fit me.

So now I got purple ones!

Do you know who the coach is?

My dad!

A football pitch is green and teams wear different colours.

All my friends cheer on

They say 'Come On!' and try and help me win.

If they are trying to get the ball and they are the same age as me,

I'll kick high and it'll go behind them.

I feel happy when I score a goal.

'Yes!'

When the games finished my family and mum says 'well done'.

I would like to win a big trophy one day and it would be gold inside and silver outside.
